

REGARDING: MR. B AND SOUTHMOST COLLEGE

HON. SOLOMON P. ORTIZ

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, May 11, 2000

Mr. ORTIZ. Mr. Speaker, today I ask my colleagues to join me in commending one of the pillars of my South Texas community, Mr. Raul Besteiro, as he is recognized by the University of Texas at the Brownsville (UT-B) Texas Southmost College as a "Distinguished Alumni" on Friday, May 12.

Mr. B, as Raul Besteiro is affectionately known throughout South Texas, is an educator with the biggest heart I have ever known. We have known each other nearly 20 years. He is a gentle and respected friend who shares my love for all things in South Texas. First as an educator, then in a second career as the Chief Executive Officer and Director of the Port of Brownsville, Mr. B has energetically served the people in the Rio Grande Valley over the course of his life. His work at the Port brings an enormous volume of trade through the Valley, bringing jobs to our area.

It is entirely appropriate that Mr. B be chosen for the honor of Distinguished Alumnus, for he has dedicated his life to the education of young people. He spent the first 33 years of his career in the service of the Brownsville Independent School District (BISD), first as a teacher, then later as Superintendent. He has remained committed to education while in his career as Port Director, offering advice to the school district and employees, and even had a school named after him in 1994. He is a unique educator for the community of Brownsville with the example of his life's work.

The community of Brownsville is lucky to have Raul Besteiro in it. He taught us all the meaning of courage and the remarkable nature of human will when he faced down cancer in the early 1990s. His most recent educational legislative interest, the Brownsville Wetlands Center Act, was signed into law in 1994. This important coordination of industry and UT-B teaches students how to protect, restore, and maintain the fragile ecosystems of the Gulf of Mexico region.

This project—in which Raul Besteiro was a prominent and influential player—combines his love of this community, his dedication to education, and his vision of a future in which the environmental concerns of industry and NAFTA are solved by the people who live in a community inspired ever forward by free trade.

Mr. B is a unique patriot, citizen, and family man, respected by so many people because he offers respect to everyone he meets. I ask the colleagues to join me in commending Raul Besteiro for the honor of indeed being a distinguished alumni of the Brownsville (UT-B) Texas Southmost College.

EXTENSIONS OF REMARKS

TRIBUTE TO DR. BRIAN CRAM

HON. SHELLEY BERKLEY

OF NEVADA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, May 11, 2000

Ms. BERKLEY. Mr. Speaker, I would like to take a moment to recognize a man who has dedicated his life to improving education for the children in the Las Vegas community.

Dr. Brian Cram has spent over 34 years as an educator, serving our children as a teacher, as a principal, and as the superintendent of the Clark County School District. It is with great sadness that we say farewell to an educator who has touched the lives of thousands of students, but it is with great happiness that we wish him a joyous retirement.

Affectionately known by the students in his district as the "Supernintendo," Dr. Cram's tenure will be remembered by his strong personal relationships, and his ability to bring the "human side" to the needs of the school district.

As a principal, Dr. Cram was not satisfied sitting behind a desk, and was happiest during the times when he was actively involved with the students' education. As a superintendent, Dr. Cram would actively participate in the educational needs of the students by traveling to as many schools possible to read to classes during the district's "reading weeks."

Dr. Cram was witness to the enormous growth of Las Vegas, as the Clark County School System expanded from 111,000 students, to over 215,000 students. As a self-proclaimed "poster boy for school bonds," Dr. Cram supported the building of 100 new schools, and championed voter approval of billions of dollars in school construction bonds for the students, teachers, and staff of the Clark County School District.

Driven by the fundamental principle that education is the "great equalizer" in life, Dr. Cram endorsed the School to Work program that was sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce, enabling students with the necessary tools to excel in the workforce.

Dr. Cram should be very proud of his accomplishments, as he has been successful in achieving his greatest challenge to meet the growth needs of the 8th largest school district in the country. His commitment and dedication is unmatched, and will be truly missed. I would like to take this opportunity to thank Dr. Cram on behalf of the Clark County community, and wish him every success in future endeavors.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

HON. VITO FOSSELLA

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, May 11, 2000

Mr. FOSSELLA. Mr. Speaker, I am not recorded on rollcall No. 154 for the rule to provide for consideration of H.R. 3709, the Internet Nondiscrimination Act. I was unavoidably detained due to inclement weather, and therefore, was not present to vote. Had I been present, I would have voted "yes" on the rule.

HONORING WILLIAM G. SHEEHAN
UPON THE OCCASION OF HIS RE-TIREMENT

HON. RICHARD E. NEAL

OF MASSACHUSETTS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, May 11, 2000

Mr. NEAL of Massachusetts. Mr. Speaker, today I would like to take a few minutes to honor a special constituent of mine who after 30 years of providing senior citizens with dedicated service at the Social Security Administration has decided to retire on June 2 of this year.

William G. Sheehan, who presently serves as the District Manager of the Springfield, MA, regional office of the Social Security Administration, has decided that the time has come for him to hang up his hat and retire from a long and meritorious career.

Bill Sheehan's commitment to seniors, the poor and the disabled in western Massachusetts is well known, and his day to day input and dedication in the Springfield regional SSA office will surely be missed.

Bill started his career with the Social Security Administration in 1967 as a Claims Representative in SSA's Springfield office. In 1971, he became an Operations Supervisor, working out of the Hartford, CT, office. He continued to climb the ranks within the Social Security Administration, moving from office to office, when in June of 1980, he became the District Manager of the Springfield Regional Social Security office. He has served in this position for more than 20 years.

There is common and collective praise for the job Bill Sheehan has done during his tenure in Springfield. The usual comments I hear about Bill go something like: "Oh, Bill Sheehan—he's the nicest man," or "Bill Sheehan, he's been so helpful." Surely his friendly face and his cordial demeanor will be greatly missed.

In addition to his brilliant service record, Bill has had a very rich public life in the community outside of his office. He serves on the Career Advisory Board at Springfield College, and was a Board member at Independence House, a shelter for men. He currently serves on the Boards of Independence House, the Galaxy Council, and the Consumer Credit Council of western Massachusetts, as well as the Greater Springfield Senior Services Inc., where he has also served as past President and Treasurer. He is also a retired United States National Guard Lieutenant Colonel and Squadron Commander.

Most noteworthy to mention today is Bill Sheehan's commitment to his family. He is married to the former Madelyn Ferrero, his former schoolmate at Cathedral High School in Springfield. Madelyn is a graduate from Elms College and is a teacher at Forest Park Middle School.

Together, Bill and Madelyn have two children, Bill and Mark. Mark is married to Jennifer Doyle, lives on Cape Cod, and works for State Street Bank in Boston. His son Bill lives in Boston and is Vice President for an Internet company, Suppliermarket.

Bill Sheehan is a graduate of Western New England College, doing it the hard way, at
